Dan Harvey Named Race Director for CARQUEST Pro Stock Tour

(Halifax, NS, January 25, 2010) – Dan Harvey of Lantz, NS was named Race Director for the 2010 season at the CARQUEST Pro Stock Tour banquet held in Dartmouth, NS on Saturday, January 23.

As over 200 people, including sponsors, teams, staff and fans, enjoyed the culmination of the 2009 CARQUEST Pro Stock Tour season, Harvey was introduced as the new Race Director. General Manager Ken Cunning said, “Dan is able to make decisions and communicate with the drivers. He is proactive in his approach and has the best interests of the CARQUEST Pro Stock Tour. I have every confidence that Dan will do a great job”. Speaking to those on-hand, Harvey committed his best to the teams and is looking forward to the start of the season.

Harvey is a long-time racer, competing in legends cars and sportsman, before retiring from the driver’s seat. He has worked as an official both at Scotia Speedworld and the CARQUEST Pro Stock Tour.
